ADAM W. BONEBRAKE DIES AT HIS HOME IN KINGMAN

Kingman, Aug. 2—Dr. Adam W. Bonebrake, 79, one of the oldest veterinary surgeons in Indiana, passed away at his home here Thursday evening at 6:20 o'clock, following an illness of three weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Dr. Bonebrake was widely known in this part of the state, having practiced for almost sixty years.

The deceased was born at Yeddo on February 23, 1850, son of F. M. and Caroline Bonebrake. He was married to Mary E. Shell on December 2, 1869, and later to Martha Jane Weaver on May 3, 1894.

Funeral services will be held at the Centennial church Sunday morning at ten o'clock, with Rev. Tharp in charge.
