Personals

—H. E. Hayworth spent the week end in Indianapolis.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ballard spent the day in Indianapolis.

—Miss Minnie Thompson spent yesterday in Indianapolis.

—Miss Theo Burton is spending a few days at her home in Tipton.

—Miss Elsie Hall of Dayton, O., was the guest of Mrs. Elmer Fowler yesterday.

—Joseph Handmacher of Chicago spent the day in this city the guest of John Bischof.

—Mrs. Ella Barrett of Covington spent Monday here with her sister, Mrs. Charles McCabe.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dave Essex have returned home after spending a few days in Indianapolis.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bell have returned to their home in New York city after a visit here.

—David Carter of Richmond, Ind., visited Kappa Sigma fraternity brothers here in the city Saturday.

—Mrs. Carolyn Stephenson has returned to this city after spending several days in Lafayette with her parents.

—Curtis Deering has returned to his home in Louisville, Ky., after spending the week-end here with Dan Rowland.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. Gill have returned home from Lebanon, Ind., where they have been visiting Mr. Gill's brother, Frank Myers.

—Matt Murphy has returned to his home at Greencastle, Ind., after visiting his father, Martin Murphy of this city, for the past week.

—Judge Frank Lahr of Indianapolis, who lectured in this city last night, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ballard.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Warren have returned home after a short visit with Mr Warren's grandson and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Jene Warren, at Lafayette.

—Mrs. J. H. Wasson has returned to her home in Indianapolis after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Voris of this city. Mrs. George Bowers accompanied her home.

Will Meet

Will Meet.

The Culver Union Hospital Guild will meet with Mrs. Fay Schenck, east Wabash avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Please bring thimbles —work.

Meeting.

Miss Elsie Hall of Dayton, O., spoke last evening at the United shield, give us life, and help us. Make good with God and prepare for a long journey."

FARMERS AND MERCHANTS' BANK TO BE ERECTED BY CITIZENS OF HILLSBORO

Special to The Journal.

Hillsboro, Jan. 20—A very enthusiastic meeting was held at the Hillsboro school building Saturday afternoon with a large number of citizens and farmers present to make plans for a new bank in Hillsboro. A capital stock of $25,000 was quickly subscribed with seventy-five stock-holders. Will Allen was elected temporary chairman and H. I. Starnes, secretary. Steps were taken at once to obtain a charter for the new bank which will be known as the Farmers & Merchants State Bank. The intentions are to erect a new building on the south side of Main street and to make it one of the most modern banks in the county.

TOBIAS BONEBRAKE DEAD IN TERRE HAUTE HOSPITAL FOLLOWING BRIEF ILLNESS

Special to The Journal.

Kingman, Jan. 19—Tobias Bonebake died at the Union hospital in Terre Haute Saturday at 11 o'clock following a two weeks' illness of stomach trouble. Mr. Bonebrake was forty-six years of age at the time of his death. He was a farmer and the son of Adam Bonebrake of this place.

The deceased is survived by his wife, two sons, and three sisters, Mrs. Rose Ash of Oregon; Mrs. Lon Carter of Freedom, and Mrs. John Carter of Kingman. Four brothers also survive, Mr. Bonebrake, Charles of Yeddo, Hardy of Texas, Kay of Washington and Sylvester of New York City.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday at Centennial.

FAIR WEEK AUTO THIEF LOCATED AT URBANA, ILL.

Word was received at the police station last night that Lawrence Barnaby, who is charged with stealing an automobile belonging to the Farmers & Merchants Trust Company, some time during fair week, 1919, is now under arrest at Urbana, Ill., on a similar charge. Barnaby was bound over to the grand jury of Champaign county.

Chief Irwin was in communication with the sheriff of Champaign county, Ill., at 9 o'clock last night and was informed that in all probability Barnaby will be arraigned before the

at Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 20, 1
Baldwin, Forrest E.
Carr, Troy
Conway, J. W.
Elliott, Dave
Grimes, Miss Florence
Hampton, Claude Floyd
Jarvis, Mrs. Fred
McCarty, John
McClure, Miss Mary
Martin, Mrs. Margaret
Paulany, Jack
Sims, Mrs. Harry Crawfordsville Radiator Co.

JUDGE LAHR TALKS TO LAR AUDIENCE AT M. E. CHU

"We have 400 girls in the In Girls' School" was the subject address delivered last evening b a large audience at the First M dist church by Judge Frank Lal Indianapolis under the auspice the Twentieth Century Club.

Judge Lahr, who presides ove Marion county juvenile court, trated his remarks with inci from the happenings in his court declared his belief that there too many girls in the school.

ANNUAL STATEMENT SHOWS UNION CO. IS PROSPER

The annual statement of the U Savings & Loan Company shows the company increased its a nearly $32,000 during the last t months and that $122,000 was lo to home buyers. At the meeting day evening the following off were elected: William C. He president; John H. Binford, vice ident; Robert W. Martin, secre Howard E. Griffith, treasurer, a

How to Bathe Face to Remove Wrink

Since its remarkable astringen tonic properties became known, c women all over the country have using the saxolite face bath to up" their faces, remove wrinkles draw flabby cheeks and neck ba normal. After using the solution face immediately feels much fi The skin tightens evenly all ove face, thus reducing lines and ness. The formula is: Powdered olite, one ounce, dissolved in hazel, one-half pint.

These ingredients are of course fectly harmless and there is no culty in obtaining them at any store.

$$$$$$ $$$$$$ $$$